The ladies are impatient for a drawing room I have no looking glasses but inwards and the Lord Not a twentieth part of the pictures can be put up Mr Tenchard's not more than half finished and no fence to keep the wolves out of the cellar and all the grass in the lot and no turnips or carrots for the cows Mr Shaw is trying to get some pipe logs to lay the drawing room floor and the entry and must remain

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

Indemnity Demanded

NEW YORK Oct 6—A special to the Herald says King William cannot ignore the demand made by the Germans expelled from France for indemnity for the losses they sustained thereby The German maritime towns also require special damages asserting that although their vessels escaped they are the injury to shipping interests through completely sojourn in foreign ports was great It is complained that France has placed herself in opposition to the progress of civilization in having seized property on the high seas and an indemnity is now asked for in order to prepare the way for the universal recognition of the principle of freedom of private property in time of war under all conditions

Movement to Restore Napoleon

A cable dispatch to the Associated press reads as follows

London Oct 6 The adherents of the French Empire are very active in England M Rouher and Baron Jerome David are living in the city It is said that they go quite frequently to Chiselhurst to confer with the Empress Eugenie Rumors that the Prussian Government is not hostile to this movement in favor of Napoleon are repeated and some persons even go so far as to say that Count Bismarck furnished part of the funds for the establishment of Le Soir (new) Imperial newspaper here

HAMBURG Oct 5—The steamers of the Hamburg American line are being used for the detention of French prisoners

French Account of Recent Military Movements

TOURS Oct 6—The battle near Paris day before yesterday has been productive of important results The Prussians were defeated and forced to retreat. The position taken by the French necessitated the evacuation of Pithiviers by the enemy The Prussians abandoned the position with so much precipitation that many cattle and large amounts of forage were left behind all of which fell into the hands of the French

Late advices from Paris state that there is much thundering there

All the bridges on the railways and highways west of Paris have been mined and are to be blown up as the Prussians advance

The Prussian preparations for bombarding Paris are nearly completed

The presence of Beauregard in Europe is denied

WAR MISCELLANY

A London dispatch of the 30th ult says The Duke Fitz James writes to the London Times concerning the barbarities and atrocities of the Prussians in burning the village of Bazilles He says They not only burned to death 100 women and children but literally roasted them alive as I myself witnessed

A late London dispatch says The Manchester Guardian declares that England has been short sighted in allowing France to be weakened by Russia when France was England's only friend and ally on the continent and the sole obstacle in the way of the seizure by Russia of England's Indian possessions The Times now fears that India will be lost Britain by her own stupidity

A cable dispatch dated Lyons, Sept 23d via London 29th says The Southern League or the independent association of the different Southern Departments is growing stronger every day An formidable army will be organized before long with Lyons and Marseilles as the leading points Do not believe a word of what is said about the red flag and mob in this city I never saw more perfect order and it reigns under the red flag

The New York Tribune believes that Russia's martial preparations are against Turkey and not against Germany Russia has much to tempt her towards the Orient and absolutely nothing to drive her toward Germany She has an immediate hope of aggrandizement in the East to attract her she has only the fear of the future and remote compensation to urge her to strike at Germany With France paralyzed Austria, powerless and Germany engaged Turkey is completely in the power of her enemy

The Berlin Avenier, a Republican paper after making an argument against the annexation of Alsace and Lorraine says in regard to compensations caused by the present war Whoever does not allow himself to be carried away by the excitement of the moment or who is not interested in misleading the German people must foresee that the war of 1870 will lead inevitably to a war between Germany and Russia as the old bond brought on that of 1813 We say nevertheless, unless there should be a revolution in Russia which is not likely Then it all depends upon the course Germany will adopt If she annexes Alsace and Lorraine France will be allied with Russia

The London correspondent of the New York Times, telegraphs I have it from a well informed quarter that the pressure brought to bear on the English Ministry by men like Sir Henry Lytton Bulwer on the one hand and deputations from the radical party on the other is producing an effect on the Government which is likely to cause it to depart from its policy of abstaining from active mediation The working classes favor a determined effort to stop the war It is curious to see that while working classes in the city are against interference, all the military and naval men are loud in their expressions of indignation because no effort is made by England to save France from utter ruin

The London Spectator estimates that after the battles of Gravelotte and Rezonville there were fifty thousand wounded left on the battle field—a number requiring five hundred surgeons and ten thousand men London, Birmingham and Sheffield have been stripped of surgical instruments The dead and dying of wounds and sickness around Metz alone are reckoned at 150 000 men—as many as the adult population of towns like Glasgow or nine hundred small villages At the battle of Worth one regiment was lost the whole of its young men—our entire generation In every battle where you read of the loss of half a German regiment it means the death or wounding of half the leaders and sorrowing or mourning in every household It is like the last Egyptian plague the death of the first born of every family The wives or husbands and fathers are nearly as numerous The invaded suffer more terribly The crushing army but only skims but plunders it sends out cavalry to glory sacks and burns in food and forage for the devouring host Cattle horses crops trees and all are under requisition Departments of France under famine are threatened with It The poor people who fly across the Belgian frontier are driven back unless they bring money to support themselves and there endless murrain, and blight and pestilence

DEATH OF SENATOR PERSHBAKER

Charles M Pershbaker State Senator from Douglas Coos and Curry counties, died at 2 o'clock this morning at the house of J K Strong in this city He came here quite ill at the beginning of the session attended the Senate for a few minutes at a time on the first two or three days since when he has been confined to his room constantly and most of the time to his bed From the first he expressed the confident conviction that he should die in a few days His disease, as he self judged by post mortem examination was of a most complicated character—enough to baffle medical skill and to render treatment hopeless Mr Pershbaker was born in Germany—in what year I cannot discover—In 1852 His father with his family came to the United States in 1850 and settled in Missouri The deceased emigrated to California in 1852 and thence to Coos Bay in 1866 since which time he has lived in Coos county—for several years past at Randolph where he carried on a mercantile business and where he owned an interest in a valuable gold mine There are two brothers residing at Marshfield on Co

FRIDAY MORNING OCTOBER 7 1870

England's Neutrality

England is of no account whatever in European affairs The great powers take no note of her Her policy is peace at any price But she don't object to seeing her neighbor embroiled in war for then she has an opportunity to stand in her own estimation and sell them guns and shot and shell with cool impartiality She is now sending arms in immense quantities to France If Prussia applies why then England stands ready to sell her arms turn all the arms and munitions she wants For England is not at all particular who her customer is She is prepared to manufacture and sell to all nations impartially guns and gunpowder to enable their people to kill each other off That is her present relation to the pending conflict in Europe How great the descent from that haughty power which fifty years ago took the lead in European affairs and directed the destinies of the world!

The position of the English Government, as the New York Times observes spiritless and selfish as it is, "undoubtedly reflects the feelings which predominate among the English people Trade considerations are uppermost in the national mind Foreign politics resolve themselves into a problem which only the ledger solves The first consideration when the war broke out was as to its effect upon English industry and commerce At every stage of the bloody struggle the same question has recurred Will the losses of Prussia and the disasters of France help or hurt British business interests? There was panic so long as there was an apparent probability that England might be drawn into the contest. That averted—or supposed to be averted—the shop-keeper begins anew to count his chances of gain, and with a result which to him is satisfactory. 'One reason why the collapse of France will be less injurious to England than might have been expected, is the suggestive heading of an article in a late number of the London Economist, and the 'reasons' multiply as the war proceeds Perhaps if the collapse of Prussia were added to the collapse of France the grovelling soul of Mr Bull would be supremely happy

Responsibilities attach to a nation as to an individual A citizen has obligations that he cannot evade, he may be called on at any time to assist in maintaining order So with England She is a member of the European family of nations, and a very pompous member into the bargain Heretofore she has worn an air of authority and exhibited a fondness for lecturing the rest of the family To do this decently, however, she must be able to uphold her authority in any way that may be required to make it effectual Her present policy of peace at any price, and her selfish and sordid action in carrying on national and international affairs on the rules of shop-keeping will soon put her down below the level of Spain and Italy Indeed she is now no longer regarded as of much consequence The other powers do not trouble themselves to inquire what she wants or what she is going to do

— Evidences of American Prosperity

There can be no better index of the thrift of the people and the prosperity of the nation than is afforded by the growth of savings Banks and the increase of money therein deposited In the September number of the Bankers' Magazine a statement is given showing the operations and returns of the Savings Banks in the six New England States. The statement is one well calculated to astonish those who have been trying to persuade themselves that the country is growing poorer and that the condition of the working classes (who are the depositors in savings Banks) is becoming continually worse and worse. The deposits in New England Savings Banks in 1858 amounted to $159 306,760 They now amount to $218,378,685, For the same time the number of depositors has increased from 640,729 to 790,057. More than fifty new Savings Banks have been established in the States mentioned, during the same period. There is a corresponding increase in the number of these banks and deposits in them, throughout the Middle and many of the Western States In the State of New York alone the deposits in the Savings Banks now reach the vast aggregate of $208,607,148 The New England States, taken together, have an aggregate population of 3 750 000 The foregoing statistics thus give to each depositor an average of $275, or more than $50 per capita to every man, woman and child within their borders In New York the average is about the same. And from all parts of the Union where Savings Banks are located similar evidences are furnished of the thrift of the people

The facts above adduced are a single item in the proof that our country, as a whole, was never so prosperous as now. Other evidences of the same fact appear in every quarter of the Union. More great public works and permanent improvements of all descriptions are now in progress than ever before. More new homes are being established and old ones improved beautified and rendered more valuable, than at any former time in the country's history There never was a time when it was possible for the working classes to save out of their earnings so much money over and above the cost of living, as now Proof of this is seen in the one fact that the deposits in the Savings Banks are augmenting so rapidly There are more articles of convenience and comfort in the homes of the masses of the people than at any former time At most all classes now have in their homes for daily use articles which would have been deemed rare and even elegant and luxurious, a few years ago From only one source are heard mournful complaints of the present and gloomy predictions for the future A political faction among us will have it that the nation is going to ledge, that the masses of the people are growing poorer, and that ruin impends over the country But they are having hard work to convince the country of the fact

The Democrats in the Legislature, after having pledged their Senator to strenuously resist all aid 'to a 'competing line' of railway that is to say, to a line competing with H Hinds have since passed a resolution through the house instructing the said Senator 'to use all due diligence and every honorable means' to secure aid for the said 'competing line' The question is here Since Kelly has solemnly pledged himself to strenuously resist all aid" for the competing line" known as the Ponera route, what honorable means remain to him whereby he can secure aid for it? It is sort of his ideas of truth and honor are formed in the same mould with those of the Herald a paper which urges him to disregard his pledge and to let the world know that the said pledge was a lie that he told for the sake of being elected

The Great Safe Unopened

Nothing has given the Democratic press much distress during the last two years as the fact that a vast sum of money had been in the State Treasury idle and unproductive We have been told that the want of this money was seriously felt in business circles that the channels of financial circulation were about run dry and that the cash accumulated ought to be put at once into circulation The Governor was besought to call the Legislature in session of the Legislature Well for two years worrying over what legislature was called The people had voted to empty the Treasury which had accumulated until the Democratic press declared that the case with the Treasury, that the first act of the Legislature would be to open the big safe and let the golden stream which had there been dammed so long flow out to gladden and bless a suffering people But nothing of the sort has been done Nearly a month has elapsed since the Legislature convened and the Treasury is still unopened That body spends its time in discussing all sorts of foolish propositions but don't go at the big safe Meantime the people are paying interest on their own money and the Democracy who have been in a fever about opening the safe for the last two years don't care now whether it is opened or not

A French Success

The French Fair recently held in San Francisco is described by the press of that city as the most enthusiastic and successful thing of the kind ever witnessed there There were many instances where money was given lavishly For instance, a French young lady worked the scent once 'Vive la France,' in the centre of a handkerchief with her own hair and presented it to the Fair Mons Pioche bought it for $700 The next day it was put up again and sold for $1 000 We take the following from one of the city papers

The last day of the French Fair was characterized by a recklessness in money matters verging upon the sublime Men wrote their names at the bottom of cheques and allowed the ladies to fill in with the sum which in their judgment seemed appropriate No scheme of getting rid of money was too wild to be adopted A woman a glove, if donated to the cause of la belle France, would bring a hundred dollars as readily as a glass of Mons Pioche's private brand of brandy would bring one dollar We need not say that the ladies excelled in this state of things They seemed a little bewildered at times at thus practically holding the key to the safe, but as a rule they used their power with discretion. The idea seemed to be that all were within a vast globe and tore up soon as they might it would ultimately be found in the basin. Americans generally did not take a hand in this game of loss, though many contributed smaller sums in a more quiet way. Several American ladies assisted at the tables and with great apparent satisfaction smiled away the coin of their gentlemen friends The Fair was the most decided success of the kind ever witnessed in this city The Christian Commission held during the rebellion for a similar purpose, was tame in comparison

French Fustian

The following paragraphs from an article by Edmund About on the war are a fair specimen of the frenzy that has taken possession of the French press on account of the rout of their armies

The men who accompany King William must never be allowed to leave the sacred soil of France again And the Bavarians, who came to themselves the rabets of the Prussian army, the Wurtemberg giants who have deemed it an honor to follow in their train and the tavern keepers and smugglers of Baden, those miserable wretches who brushed our boots with their moustaches when we spent or lost our money with them, have come to carry off the spoils of a noble people on their carts they are the vultures of the enemy! But we shall repay you all this with usury, hideous ghouls!

We did not wish the German race any ill, whose fault is it if we have become its enemies, and if France can save civilization only by crushing the Teutonic vermin The 1st of January, 1871, must see Europe purged of all Hohenzollerns —all those feudal lords and all helmeted Jesuites! We must have on our Eastern frontier a dismembered, ruined and devastated Germany for a century to come!

Rather heavy talk for a people, all of whose armies have been utterly whipped and in a great part captured, and whose last, forlorn hope is now being besieged by the very people they propose to ruin

In the table we published the other day the population of Oregon was given at 91 059 The population of Linn county was stated at 9,000 The exact official returns from that county, as received at the Marshal's office, show that its inhabitants number 8,717 Hence the exact population, of the State is 90,876 We are sorry that like the snowy crest of Mount Hood, it is coming down

Dispatches to-day again contain intimations that the Chinese contemplate driving foreigners out of their country We are sorry to hear that those "heathen barbarians are so forgetful of liberal principles and of the laws of commercial interest as that should by this time have spread all over the world, as to adopt the ideas of the Legislature of Oregon even as a measure of retaliation.

A contemporary journal has something to say about the "inflexible integrity" of Col Kelly It should have added, always excepting his action in placing himself, for the sake of an election, at the disposal of a single railroad corporation during his Senatorial term, and publishing the bill of sale

ANOTHER MEMBER OUSTED —On Thursday Mr Watts of Yamhill was ousted from the Senate and the seat given to W T Newby, by a vote of 15 to 9

THE TERRITORIES

The amount of lands disposed of at the Olympia Land Office during the month of September was 32 361 acres.

A few days ago the stage from Olympia to the Cowlitz was upset near Bush Prairie The passengers were all thrown out and the top of the vehicle torn off Bernah Brown was among the passengers all of whom were more or less injured

The Helena Herald suggests a discrepancy between the census report showing but two Chinese women in Deer Lodge county and the report of the grand jury that a certain alley in Deer Lodge is inhabited and densely crowded by Chinese women of ill repute"

We note by the Post and Press that the nine magnificent Big Horn Expedition, that was to be several thousand strong and build wealth and people Eastern Montana with a quarter of a million people this season has turned up in Bozeman and thereabouts sixty three in number

A P Sullivan editor of the Santa Fe (New Mexico) Post, and Hon H M Heath ex Territorial Secretary, not long ago indulged in a shooting scrape Eleven shots were exchanged and no blood drawn The trouble originated from a series of articles in the Post reflecting upon the character of the General

The Brandon (Mississippi) Weekly Herald has the following We understand that the State Board of Education is appointing a large number of Yankee snuffle snuffers, recently imported as Superintendents of Education for the various counties of the State These side whiskered, sharp nosed bandy shanked nasal twanged pimps of hell fresh from the jails and penitentiaries of New England who know nothing of the wants customs or habits of the people will be sent out to organize free schools, put devilment into the heads of the negroes, and the carpet bags of the people in their pockets"

CURRENT NOTES

The Nathan murder at New York is forgotten, nobody was found willing to confess himself the murderer, and it is too much trouble to hunt any longer

In the year 1849 the present King William, of Prussia, then the prince royal, was obliged to flee from Berlin to avoid the rage of the people At about the same time Louis Napoleon entered France and speedily reached the Imperial throne

It is stated that in the recent Wyoming election "nearly all the respectable Democratic lady voters voted the straight Republican ticket, voting actually in some instances against their own husbands and brothers' There are those, perhaps, who will question the wisdom of a policy which thus divides the house against itself.

Horrible revelations come up from Jersey City about the manufacture of sausages. It is now certain that dogs, cats, horses and diseased hogs are chopped up for sausage meat in the large establishments in that suburb Justice Birney has issued orders for the arrest of the perpetrators of these outrages Rather worse than the "heathen Chinee"

The foreign sympathies of the Democracy are all embodied if the Illinois State Convention may be accepted as an exponent of the party's views. In their eagerness to extend a "hearty welcome" to Republican France, the Illinois Democrats actually declared that they "commend the Administration of the Federal Government for the recognition so far accorded to the French Republic"

Brooklyn (N Y) has a population of 406,09" In 1802 there were only 86 persons who claimed it as their home. In 1820, the number was 7,4?3 in 1830 15 295, in 1840, 36 233 1850 96 838 1860, 266 112, 1865, 296 112 Much of its population should be credited to the great metropolis, New York of which it is an adjunct But the Brooklynites proper prefer their own boundaries and city government

REPUBLICAN PROSPECTS IN OHIO —General Garfield speaks quite confidently of the result of the approaching election in Ohio He says the discussions thus far have caused the people to increase their appreciation of the work done by Congress at the last session, particularly the work of last month, and that there is no reason to apprehend any material change from former elections He regards it possible that the Republicans may lose one district in the State through divisions therein but considers it equally possible that they may gain one of the Cincinnati districts now represented by a Democrat

THE OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Sixth Biennial Session.

SENATE—Morning Session

SALEM, Thursday, Oct 6th.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A. M., and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called, and, on motion, the Senate adjourned until 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of attending the funeral of Mr. Pendleton.

Afternoon Session.

At 2 P. M. the Senate convened, and immediately took a recess until 3 P. M., to enable members who attended the funeral of Mr. Pendleton to get dinner.

At 3 P. M. the Senate met, and the Journal of Tuesday and Wednesday was read and approved.

Mr. Brooks, of Baker, introduced a bill granting a ferry to Baker City. Adjourned.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

The following bills were introduced and read the first time.

By Mr. Holmes—S. B. 37, relating to elections and the mode of filling vacancies in office; ordered printed.

By Mr. Stratton—S. B. 40, to amend the charter of Albany.

By Mr. Robison—S. B. 47, to create the office of Insurance Commissioner.

By Mr. Thompson—S. B. 48, to amend the charter of Oregon City.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

S. B. 35—To amend the Civil Code in regard to the proceedings of administrators and executors; referred to the Judiciary Committee.

S. B. 44—To amend the Civil Code in regard to notice of sale of property upon execution; referred to Judiciary Committee.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

S. B. 38.—To create the office of Assistant Treasurer. The question was upon the passage of the bill; was yeas, 12, nays, 6—a strict party vote. Mosher, Burch and Trevitt, Democrats, were absent.

S. B. 39—To prevent and punish vagrancy, passed—yeas, 14, nays, 5.

YAMHILL CONTEST.

Mr. Holmes asked leave to offer a report on the Yamhill contested case.

The President—Report is not now in order.

Mr. Cornelius moved to suspend the rules and allow the report to be submitted now; carried.

The majority report of the committee was read. It throws out enough votes cast for Ellis to give Newby a majority. It was accompanied by a resolution declaring the seat held by Watts to be vacant, and that W. T. Newby be installed therein.

Mr. Trevitt moved to lay the report on the table; lost.

Mr. Cornelius presented a minority report from the same committee. This report shows that after throwing out all the illegal votes questioned by both parties Watts' majority was 17. It was accompanied by a resolution declaring Watts entitled to hold his contested seat.

Mr. Trevitt moved to adjourn; lost.

Mr. Cornelius moved that the sitting member and contestant be allowed to appear by counsel, and that each be given one hour to address the Senate; lost.

Mr. Newby then addressed the Senate in his own behalf for twenty-five minutes.

Mr. P. G. Sullivan appeared for Mr. Watts, speaking one hour.

Mr. Newby rejoined, speaking thirty-five minutes.

Mr. Holtzclaw moved to adjourn.

Mr. Cornelius requested the gentleman from Josephine to withdraw his motion to adjourn, that he might submit a request.

Mr. Holtzclaw withdrew his motion.

Mr. Cornelius said he was about to ask leave of absence till next Tuesday, and he would prefer that the matter be decided now. If the Senate was disposed to adjourn without a vote, he would like to have the matter made the special order of Tuesday next.

Mr. Cornelius gave way to Mr. Watts for a personal explanation in regard to a charge preferred by Mr. Newby, to the effect that he (Watts) had bought a vote for $25 at the last election. He denied the charge, and explained how out of a trivial circumstance the charge originated.

Mr. Cornelius moved that the matter of contest be made the special order of the next Tuesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Brown, of Baker, moved a call of the Senate, which was sustained.

Absent—Hendershott and Trevitt.

The absentees were brought in and the vote being taken on Mr. Cornelius' motion, the yeas were, 7; nays, 14.

Mr. Cochran moved to adjourn, which was lost; yeas, 3; nays, 18.

Mr. Mosher moved that the majority report be adopted and on this motion the yeas and nays were:

Yeas—Baldwin, Brown, of Baker, Burch, Cochran, Crawford, Hendershott, Holtzclaw, Heath, Lieuallen, Mosher, Patterson, Stout, Stratton, Trevitt and Mr. President.

The nays were Messrs. Brown of Marion, Cornelius, Moores, Powell and Thompson.

So the report was adopted.

Mr. Mosher moved that the Secretary of State be invited to administer the oath of office to W. T. Newby; carried.

Mr. Cornelius asked and obtained leave of absence till Tuesday morning.

The Sergeant-at-Arms informed the President that the Secretary had gone home.

The Senate adjourned at 5:15.

HOUSE—Morning Session.

SALEM, Thursday, Oct 6th.

The House was called to order at 9 o'clock, A. M., by the Speaker.

Absent—Hunter, Holman, Lockhart, Dunbar, Davenport, Starkweather, Drain, Olney and Whalley were absent.

The Journal of Tuesday and Wednesday was read, corrected and approved.

Prayer was omitted.

FUNERAL OF HENRTON PENDLETON.

Mr. Amis—Is there anything now before the House? If not I will move to take a recess until 7 o'clock this evening.

The Speaker—I see from the papers that The funeral of Henrton Pendleton is to take place at 10 o'clock A. M. If so, there is no necessity for omitting the afternoon session.

Mr. Amis—I will withdraw my motion, and move to adjourn until 11½ o'clock.

Mr. O'Regan—If the Chair will permit me, I will announce that it has been arranged to form in procession in front of the State House at 10½ o'clock this morning. The House and its officers, being in front, will open ranks, and allow the Senate and State officers to pass through. It will then close ranks; and in this order move to the place where the corpse is. There the Senate will open ranks, and the members of the House will pass and receive the remains of Senator Pershbaker. The procession will then march to the Congregational Church, and after the funeral services it will proceed to to the cemetery. I hope, also, that as the corpse is passing, each gentleman will uncover his hat, as a token of respect for our departed friend.

Mr. Hare—It is now not quite 9½ o'clock, and I would suggest that we can proceed with the usual business until a quarter past 10 o'clock before adjourning. In this time we will have time enough to introduce a number of bills which gentlemen have ready.

Mr. Amis—There is no second to my motion.

Mr. Fulton—I would oppose the proposition to continuing business. I think we ought not to do anything until after the burial of our friend. As we have taken up one day already, we had better take a little more time and pay the honors due to our late friend in a proper way. I move that we now adjourn.

The Speaker suggested that the hour had better be fixed at 2 o'clock P. M.

The motion was so amended and then agreed to by the House.

Afternoon Session.

SALEM, Monday, Oct. 6, 1870

The House was called to order at 2 o'clock P. M. by the Speaker.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

On motion of Mr. Lockhart a recess was taken until 3 o'clock P. M.

At 3 o'clock P. M. the House re-assembled, the Speaker in the chair.

GENERAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

Mr. Whitaker, from the Committee on Ways and Means, introduced a bill to provide for the ordinary expenses of the State Government and other specific purposes.

The bill makes the following appropriation: For salary of the Governor for the next two years, $3,000; for Secretary of State, $3,000; for State Treasurer, $1,800; Governor's Private Secretary, $1,200; Assistant Secretary of State, $800; Librarian, $1,000; Justices of the Supreme Court, $20,000; District Attorneys, $5,000; Pilot Commissioners, $1,000; Penitentiary Physician, $1,000; Lunatic Asylum, $7,000; for expenses of conveying convicts to the Penitentiary, $10,000, expenses of Penitentiary and salaries of officers of the same, $60,000; inspection of the Penitentiary, $4,000; for printing, $15,000; for lights, stationery, fuel and other incidental expenses, $20,000; for $73,000; for the steam tug on the Columbia river bar, $14,000; for tuition of the A. Heidlmal College, $1,000; and for expenses of Boating Agricultural College funds, $1,656. The bill also applies $15,000 appropriated for mileage of members of the Legislature by the act of the 25th inst., to the payment of the per diem also of the present session. The bill also appropriates for the two last years the salaries of the State officers, including those of the penitentiary, and $5,000 for per diem of members of the last session, $45,000 in all, and also appropriates $86,000 for the Insane Asylum, $10,000 for the State printing; $4,000 for the expenses of conveying convicts to the Penitentiary, and $400 to pay Mr. Landon, of Portland, for services as accountant at the last session for 20 days, at $10 per day, with interest on the same; nothing for the Penitentiary

Mr. Whitaker—I move that the bill be printed with numbered and authenticated technical amendments of the House. I did not have the pleasure of submitting it to one of my colleagues, on the Committee of Ways and Means, from Marion county (Mr. Earhart), not being acquainted with him. The bill was the result of consultation of the other members of the committee, and if there is no objection I would like to move that the rules be suspended, and that the bill be read the second time now. If I hear no objection I will make the motion.

Mr. O'Regan—I am in favor of passing an appropriation bill, and as far as this one is Constitutional, I will support it; but where it is not Constitutional, I will not. I have a very high respect for the gentleman who introduced it, but I do not think it is entirely Constitutional to read it more than once on its introduction.

Mr. Whitaker—In order to satisfy the gentleman from Multnomah, I will read what the Constitution says, the rules read the same which requires that bills shall be read on separate days, except when in cases of emergency two-thirds of the members shall decide with ayes.

Mr. O'Regan—I accept the gentleman's explanation.

Mr. Olney—I think that the rules ought to be suspended, not only in this case, but in the case of every lengthy bill, so as to save the time of the House. The bill has been read by sections, and must be again read by title before it reaches its final passage.

Mr. Whitaker—The object of the committee in offering the bill may not be understood by the House. I will simply repeat that the bill has been drawn with great care. It only provides for the payment of the ordinary expenses of the state government for the next two years and for the payment of such of the expenses of the last two years as have been distinctly ascertained, at the present time. There is certainly no question as to the property of making the appropriations. I am aware that the country is anxious that the Treasury should be opened. The business men throughout the State are anxious, and in fact all the people are desirous that it should be done. If the present motion prevails I will, after the bill is read the second time, move to suspend the rules and read it the third time.

Mr. Olney—I move to suspend the rules and read the bill the second time by title.

Mr. Grant objected to the change in the bill appropriating $10 a day for 50 days to pay Mr. Lawton, as no contract in examining the books of the State officers at the last session. He said Mr. Lawton had agreed to do the work for $5 per day and board.

Mr. Whitaker explained that Mr. Chapman, the former member of the committee, appointed to investigate the condition of the books of the state treasurer and Secretary of State had agreed Mr. Lawton was certain that he was entitled to $250. A resolution, however, was adopted allowing him pay for 50 days at $5 per day. Interest on $250 up to the 25th inst., would make the total sum due $317.

Mr. Dunbar—I would like to ask if the Hon. Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means of this House proposes to put this bill upon its passage when it is an important bill, and I would like to have time for its consideration. I do not think that I, in common with others, have had time enough to understand the bill, also, to see if it is right or not. My Honorable friend, Mr. Lockhart, is not present, and we do not know how the bill was getting up. He has not been with us for a week or two, and I think it would be right that he was present when the bill was passed. I am not willing to vote for the bill without some time for examination. I am willing that the bill should be read the second time now, but I think that it should be read the third time to-morrow.

Mr. Olney—I withdraw my motion.

Mr. Fulton also desired the bill to be laid without delay. He had confidence in Mr. Whitaker, and thought the Treasury should be relieved as soon as possible.

Mr. Agnew was in favor of acting upon the bill immediately. He was in favor of the bill being drawn in order to avoid an unpaid claim exceeding $10—but all the claims are $291,000 in all, which may or may not be appropriated.

The motion prevailed and the bill was read the second time by title.

Mr. Whitaker—I have only to add my wishes in regard to the passage of the bill at the present time. I am willing to yield and will at any time move to further suspend the rules. If gentlemen desire to have the bill printed before action, I shall not object. I cannot think of any proper reason for it.

Mr. Agnew—I am in favor of printing the bill as a special committee bill.

Mr. Hare—I would suggest that the bill be ordered engrossed and read the third time to-morrow.

Mr. Lockhart—I move that the rules be suspended, the bill be considered, engrossed, read the third time now and put upon its final passage.

Mr. O'Regan—I will amend by having it printed. Question, question!

The motion was not seconded. The rules were suspended, the bill was considered, engrossed and read the third time.

Mr. Lockhart thought that the bill, coming from ex-Governor Whitaker, ought to entitle it to pass without question.

Mr. Grant explained that he would vote against the bill on account of the clause allowing $300 for Mr. Lawton's services. He considered half of it stealing from the State.

Mr. O'Regan—I wish to explain myself on this. I desire to have this bill printed as other bills are printed. I want to know definitely what I am about. At present I do not see how to do that which I think proper and right. I have been elected by my constituency to do that. It seems that the bill authorizes the payment of double the usual salaries. If that is the case I will say no. I am not instructed to do that. I would ask for information. Mr. Speaker, I ask you if this bill does not give twice the usual amount? If it does I will vote no.

The Speaker—If I understood it in the same way I would vote no, but I understand that the bill appropriates $3,000 for the Governor's salary for two years. That is the same as $1,500 per annum. It has no with the other officers. No increase is made.

Mr. O'Regan—After this instruction I will vote yes, Mr. Speaker.

The bill passed, Mr. Grant alone voting no.

SENATE MESSAGE

A message from the Senate announced the passage of S. B. 39, an Act to punish vagrancy. It was read the first time.

Also, the passage of the bill to create the office of Assistant Secretary of State. It allows one half of one per centum upon all Peoples into the State Treasury, and one per cent. on all disbursements for the compensation of the Assistant, who is to be appointed by the Treasurer.

Also, the passage of a memorial asking Congress to cause the grant of land which lapsed one year after the admission of the State into the Union, by reason of the failure of the Governor to locate them.

The House concurred.

WAGON ROAD.

Mr. Olney introduced a bill to aid in the construction of a wagon road from Tillamook to the Wallamut Valley, appropriates $5,000 from the General Fund for the purpose, to be replaced by money from the fire per cent. land fund.

THE YAMHILL COUNTY CONTEST.

Mr. Alexander, from the Committee on Elections, presented a majority report in the contested election case of A. Shunk and Wm. Townsend vs A. Hussey and Lee Laughlin. They report having found the following voters non-residents, viz: J. Marsenll, W. H. Stewart, N. B. Haspod, W. H. Haspod, W. Jones, C. H. Hume, W. C. Hill, Thomas Black, L. J. Simmons, J. M. Harvey, Henry Simms, A. E. Parker, B. F. Morgan, John Bowman, D. Brewhaker, Louis Barbee, W. Martin, A. Dalzell, Bill Burnett, H. C. Johnson, and Green Hale.

These are found non-residents upon the testimony of M. S. Hart.

The report says Hart and others hired these men in Multnomah, Marion, Washington, Polk and Linn counties, with the understanding that they were to vote the Republican ticket, and that after the election they were to leave work on the east side railroad, that after the election most of these men went to work on the railroad.

The report also puts them as illegal voters, without stating any of the circumstances, the following names, D. G. Randall, John Majors, V. V. Hickox, Stephen Longfellow, C. A. Montgomery, Ephraim Palmer, Samuel Shafer, Squire Randall, G. W. Adams, Thomas Brown, H. A. Brown, George Fleet, John Fleet, J. M. Masterson—16, making a total of imported and otherwise illegal voters of 35.

The majority admit the following illegal Democratic voters, viz: Alexander Williams, R. B. Bonnesser, J. F. Bates, T. C. Tyler, T. B. Barnes, B. F. Scudds, James Hunter, Peter Weiser, Frank Weiser and J. C. Fowler—10.

The report says that the following Democratic votes were illegally rejected: Wm Whalen, Lee Mitchell, James Crowning, Owen Bowen, Thomas Dawson, D. Outrain and C. E. Fendal—7. From these data they find a majority of 17 for Shunk and 16 for Townsend.

Mr. Mills presented a minority report that the County Clerk's certificate shows a majority for the sitting members, 14 for Shunk, and 15 for Laughlin. The whole number of votes charged to be illegal which were cast at the contested polls is 17.

In addition to those admitted by the majority report, the following names are also given: W. L. Bruce, David Ernest, Bird Bangham, G. M. McDonald, John Driscoll, Q. L. Kinney, and H. B. Cooper. John Cooper is alleged to have been illegally rejected, because he offered to vote out of his precinct. This increases the majorities of the sitting members to 20 for Laughlin and 22 for Hussey. The minority claim that if the Republican voters alleged to have been imported to have voted illegally, 25 were bona fide residents; that Thomas Brown, H. A. Brown, Geo Fleet, and John Fleet, alleged by the contestants to be aliens, are naturalized citizens, that as to those alleged to have been imported, there was no evidence to show that there was any understanding as to what ticket they were to vote, that the men hired by Mr. Hart were not questioned by him as to how they would vote; that he hired them in good faith as laborers for the whole season; that they remained with him until July, working on the ditch at McMinnville, and that they were removed temporarily till funds are furnished to complete the ditch. G. H. Randall was engaged as a Minister of the Gospel, and had resided in the county two years.

Relative to the rejected Democratic voters, three of them had no papers and were properly rejected and two being changed as non-residents, refused to take the oath. The report concludes with finding a majority of 17 for Laughlin and 26 for Hussey.

Mr. Hare—I move that the reports be made the special order of the day for to-morrow at 2 o'clock, and that counsel be admitted for each of the parties.

Mr. Hayden—I move to lay the minority report on the table.

Mr. O'Regan—I would like to have the report printed.

Mr. Alexander hoped the case would be disposed of at once, as much time had already been given to contested cases.

Mr. Hare—In reply to the gentleman from Linn, Mr. Alexander, I will say that it may be all very nice for the majority to rush this thing through immediately—perhaps I may indulge in the same. Myself, I understand to say that there are gentlemen on this floor who are not quite satisfied with the evidence offered. My motion is a reasonable one. It is not made for the purpose of consuming time, and it does not ask for an unreasonable delay. I have not moved to print the reports. The sitting members have gone to the expense of getting counsel here and a minority, a respectable minority, too, who have rights here which demand to be respected upon the impunity and desire a fair trial. That is all we want, and that no one have a right to demur to. The counsel for the sitting members is now engaged in the Senate, where the case for Yamhill is being tried; it is now too late in the day to do anything before to-morrow, and we ask this slight postponement. In gentlemen, here of the majority, pretend to say that this contest is to be settled without even going through the form of a trial. This petitioner has been in session, but the unofficial business gentlemen, I undertake to say that you will find a day of reckoning with the people of the State. The party which tolerates such injustice as I partisan spirit cannot triumph long in Oregon. If you refuse to grant this gentlemen from their seats in this an hour manner, you will find it bad policy in the end.

Mr. Townsend—As one of the contestants I desire to say that the contestees have been able to employ counsel, and it is for this House to determine whether they will allow the sitting members to employ counsel alone. We have been ready for three weeks and are ready now.

Mr. Trevitt in the chair

Mr. Whitaker—I would ask if it would be acceptable to amend the motion to an early hour?

Mr. Hare accepted an amendment to make the reports the special order for to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

The motion as amended prevailed.

BILLS READ FIRST TIME

Mr. Porter, from the Committee on Counties, reported a bill to amend the several acts relating to fencing and pilotage on the Columbia river bar.

Mr. Alexander, from the Committee on Counties, reported a substitute for the above bill.

Mr. Lockhart introduced a bill to regulate the fees of officers east of the Cascades.

Mr. Whitaker introduced a bill to prevent fraud in elections.

NEW APPORTIONMENT.

Mr. Davenport from the Committee on Federal Relations, suggested to have a committee report a joint bill for a new apportionment of senators and Representatives in compliance with the Constitution of the State permitting such apportionment every two years.

Mr. Hare—I believe very well satisfied with the present apportionment, and that of the Republican bill was had made it they ought not to do it.

Mr. Dorris thought that the matter ought not to be hurried up until after the question of the admission of Nebraska and the organization of Colorado were settled.

Mr. Hare regarded the present apportionment as very unequal for even if the new bill progresses to the admission of the several states. There will be no question as to the property of making the new apportionment. I am aware that the country is anxious that the Treasury should be opened. The business men throughout the State are anxious, and in fact all the people are desirous that it should be done. If the present motion prevails I will, after the bill is read the second time, move to suspend the rules and read it the third time.

Mr. Olney—I move to suspend the rules and read the bill the second time by title.

Fraud in the New York Elections.

From the Sacramento Bee.

The canvass in the State of New York over the Gubernatorial election is very exciting. The Republican candidate, Gen. Woodford, has taken the stump, and boldly charges that the present Democratic Governor and candidate for re-election, John T. Hoffman, was elected two years since because of a fraudulent vote and a fraudulent count, because thousands of naturalization papers were issued from courts without the semblance of judicial order because organized gangs of repeaters ruffians and bullies marched from poll to poll depositing their illegal ballots and that over and over again, with time to molest or make them afraid, because corrupt inspectors and canvassers in the cities of New York and Brooklyn falsely counted the ballots, that were thus unfairly thrown, and created fictitious majorities upon which his certificate of election was granted. These are not idle boasts made upon the eve of an important election, as Gen. Woodford is prepared to prove all his assertions to the present Governor face to face before the people, and Governor Hoffman had not at latest accounts signified his willingness to accept the challenge. The New York Evening Post, a conservative Republican journal, thus comments upon Woodford's serious charges: "This question has passed beyond partisanship. Of what avail is it to discuss any question of policy, the merits of protective tariffs, systems of taxation, canal policy, the justice and expediency of free trade, if in any event the people are not to decide the election? The purity of the ballot-box must be restored and maintained and preserved, or the days of the Republic are numbered." Both parties—or, rather, the honest and scrupulous majorities of both parties—are interested in having the purity of the ballot-box maintained inviolate, no matter which party remains in the ascendant. Through the ballot-box the people express their will, it is the only way provided by law in which that will can be ascertained. Whoever tampers with the ballot-box attempts to defeat the will of the people, and should be visited with condign punishment. It is to be hoped that the people of New York will have an opportunity of having their will correctly recorded.

An old Conservative, on hearing of the Republican defeat in North Carolina, walked eight miles to Newbern for the purpose of reclaiming some slaves who left him in 1865. He didn't get them, and returned home damning such a victory as that.

The Washington correspondence of the Pittsburg Chronicle explains Mrs. Lincoln's financial embarrassments by saying that she went largely in debt without her husbands knowledge, during their residence in Washington.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

PORTLAND, Oct. 7, 1870.

Gold quotations from New York by telegraph show a slight decline, closing at 114¾. Legal tenders are quiet at 71¾ buying, and 88½ selling. San Francisco quotations are 88 to 88½.

The most notable features of our markets to report to-day in shipping interests is the departure of the Isaretd for England with 13,960 sacks of wheat, weighing 1,475,508 pounds or 24,591 bushels. She was loaded to order by Messrs. Corbitt & Macleay. The same parties are now loading the Alpha, with wheat, and as her cargo is all secured she will have quick dispatch

There are remaining in port, subject to charter, the Tordenskiold a 1,000 ton ship, lately from Wales with railroad iron. The Kansas Augusta, Orient and Stag-hound now in port, we understand, have not date mined upon their destinations outward. The Edward James will load in the trade of one of the Chinese firms, and the Garibaldi's for another, both to have quick dispatch for China.

The official duties of the Collector of this port have been commenced, and the Onyfamme was the first vessel to clear. She sailed to-day with a valuable cargo of produce, consisting of 2,570 barrels of flour, 30 cases of bacon and hams, 50 bales of woolen goods, 6 cases of woolen goods, assorted, 20 bales of wool, 210 head of sheep, 25 bales of hides, 10 bales sh. sparling, 208 boxes of eggs, and 11 barrels of linseed oil.

Wholesale and Jobbing Markets.

PORTLAND, Oct. 7.

The chief features of the trade in this department are about the same as heretofore reported during the present season—which are good. In the dry goods market we have some slight changes to note. Standard drills are reported from ¼ to ⅝c less. Prints have advanced, but a trifle however, in consequence of movements in the staple lines in Eastern markets. Powder has not changed from the established rates fixed by agents, but triple fuse is marked $1 in advance per 1,000 feet of old quotations.

Recent arrivals give us about the fullest and most complete stocks that have ever been noticed in the city, and jobbers are all very busy. Our local woolen mills are run to the full extent of their working capacity. Full trade sales are now in order, at which offerings are liberal, and prices obtained quite satisfactory. Stocks are of less burdensome than usual, remittances from the interior are good, and trade prospects more encouraging than for months past.
